UM ARMY ROTC TO ENTERTAIN
REST HOME RESIDENTS

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Army ROTC will sponsor entertainment programs at four Missoula rest homes beginning March 4 as part of its community relations program.

Involved with approximately 35 ROTC cadets in the program are the Latter Day Saints' Student Association Committee, K-dettes (women's auxiliary to the Army ROTC) and other UM students.

The visitations and entertainment are scheduled for Hillside Manor, 7 p.m. March 4; Royal Manor Nursing Home, 5 p.m. March 6; Flor-Haven Rest Home, 4 p.m. March 11, and Lee-Rae Rest Home, 5 p.m. March 13.

The programs will include a "jug band" performance as well as other musical entertainment.

"This is the first year of the existence of the community-relations program in the Army ROTC," said Army ROTC Cadet Steven L. Atkin, information officer of the Community-Relations Planning Committee.

The same group began its program last year with a Christmas show at the Fort Harrison Veterans' Hospital near Helena.

Members of the Community-Relations Planning Committee of the Army ROTC Battalion include UM students and ROTC members Richard A. Wright, Salt Lake City, Utah; Neil A. Brill, Elyria, Ohio; K-dette representative Ann Elizabeth Barkus, Seattle, Wash.; Thomas B. Miller, Helena; Atkin, St. Ignatius; and Paul J. Lodge and Ronald B. MacDonald, both of Missoula.
